Movements on the Potomac.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.

The rebels have burned a thousand bushels of corn and wheat, at Fairfax, to prevent it from falling into our hands.

The rebels have deserted Vienna, and torn up the railroad track. The object of tearing up the road is to prevent Gen. McClellan from throwing troops into Lewinsburg.

The sudden retreat of the rebels from Vienna, has caused excitement here. Gen. McClellan, with his staff, crossed the Potomac to-day, to investigate the state of affairs.

The rebel pickets have fallen back on Fairfax. Our pickets follow them. It is supposed the rebel army is concentrated on the line from Manassas Gap to Aquia Creek.

The reports that the rebel army is falling back on Manassas are founded on conjecture.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.—A rebel chaplain, who was taken in the late skirmishes here, says that before he was captured, seventy-seven killed and wounded had been taken from the field. The rebels appeared on the Loudon and Bolivar Heights this morning, and were scattered by the fire of the columbiad taken from them on Tuesday. The rebels burned a mill containing 12,000 bushels of wheat.

Missouri Affairs.

SYRACUSE, Mo., Oct. 17.—It is said that Price has made stand with 20,000 disciplined troops and other irregulars. Fremont is making pontoon bridges to cross his army over the Osage to reach him. He is determined to make Price fight or retreat.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 19.—The town of Humboldt, in the Indian country, has been burnt by the rebels. One thousand wagons and two thousand yoke of cattle have been sent to Fremont from this place. The Union men of Kansas have nominated a State ticket, without regard to party.

Miscellaneous.

The Missouri merchants have determined to sell goods only for cash.

Mr. Grow, late Collector at Nashville, is in Washington. He says Northern goods are plenty in Nashville; and that the Union men are quietly waiting there for the advance of the Federal army.

Government have received European offers for a portion of our loan.

Two or three companies of Swedes, from Minnesota, are found among the Minnesota troops.

Gen. Ripley, expecting an attack on Sullivan Island, Charleston, has given notice that the inhabitants may be required any moment to leave.

L. D. Boone, of Chicago, has given notice that he will give the widow of the first man killed at Lexington, a lot in Chicago or forty acres of land.

The Legislature of North Carolina were in session when news was received of the capture of Hatteras Inlet. The Union men rose in their places and cheered and waved their hats, and were so noisy that all business was for a time suspended. The same feeling was exhibited in Raleigh.

A dispatch dated Madrid, Oct. 24, mentions that the correspondent of the Autograph to-day, says: "We are authorized to deny the statement that the Spanish Expedition to Mexico had been suspended, and to declare on the contrary, that it is being actively carried out. The Expedition from Spain will leave in short time, without prejudice, or the co-operation which she will afterwards afford to France and England."

Thurlow Weed says if a regiment or brigade of printers can be raised, he will shoulder his musket and join them.

While Gen. Fremont receives $6,000 a year as his salary as Major General, he is paying out $24,000 a year to persons in his employ.

Col. McClernand, of Illinois, made a Brigadier General, has resigned his seat in the U. S. House of Representatives. Gen. Wm. F. Thornton has been nominated to succeed him.

It is said the Julia can run up to and above Salem in low water. If so, she will do a capital business should the State Fair be at Salem next year.

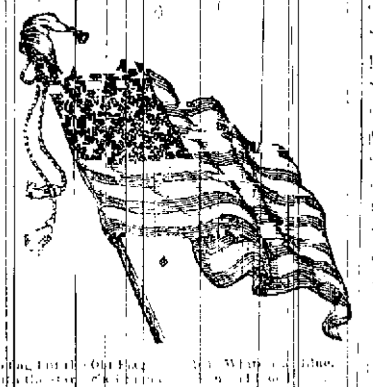
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



[illegible]

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 1, 1861

John Logan a Union Man.

Those editors who talk of compromise only do it to deceive. They know that the rebels have never shown the least disposition to compromise. They purposely prevented compromise measures from passing Congress. Their determination has always been to break up the Union.

Illinois for some time had one "compromise" member of Congress,—John Logan. John was always a pro-slavery man, and sustained the South up to a very late period. We have lately found him, however, at the head of a Union regiment, raised in his Congressional District, in Southern Illinois. An Illinois paper gives the reasons for this change in John's programme:

"Logan declares that he and other compromising Union men in Congress, met in secret conclave, and determined to make a last effort. They sent May to Richmond to ascertain if the Confederates would entertain, accept or offer any compromise. No compromise could be agreed upon, they utterly refusing, even though a blank sheet of paper be given them to write their own terms. Logan declares their intention is to fight, and calls upon the Democrats to rally around the old flag, and thwart them in their diabolical efforts to destroy the Government."

John came from Congress all right. He told his story to his constituents. They sided with John. He raised a regiment and is doing good service as a Union man. Long life and good luck to him.

Gov. Curry would do well to take lessons from John Logan. Logan found that the Secessionists would not compromise though they were furnished with a blank sheet of paper on which to write their own terms. Curry knows this as well as John Logan does—and yet he keeps up his senseless jargon of "peace" and "compromise," both of which terms mean the defeat of our arms, for which his prayers are constant.

DIRECT AND INCOME TAX IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—The Advertiser has a statement from "P. K. H." aimed to show that it will cost more to collect these taxes in Washington Territory than the amount which will be collected. The same argument might have been used against the employment of custom house officers to collect duties in that territory; and we are not sure, if the argument of this gentleman is regarded as correct, and his conclusions sound, the whole system of collection districts and custom house officers in Washington and Oregon would not be properly dispensed with. Few, however, would contend for such a measure.

The Advertiser says we write our Olympia letters, and denies that any movements have been made there to suppress his treasonable sheet. A letter received from thence on Wednesday evening says: "All the government officials but one signed the request to our postmaster to refuse to deliver the Advertiser. All the subscribers agreed to stop it as a compromise. If it continues to come the postmaster will not deliver it. If he does, he will go by the board himself."

IS BEN MCCULLOCH REALLY ALIVE?—Persons from Southwest Missouri reiterate the statement of Ben McCulloch's death, and the time, with such correctness of evidence as to make its truth very probable. A wound which he received at Springfield was neglected until he died from its effects at Fayetteville, Arkansas. His troops—all who did not follow Price to Lexington—were at last accounts near Camp Walker.

On Tuesday [illegible] we received Washington despatches [illegible] [illegible] we received San Francisco papers of the same day.

There is a [illegible] in the [illegible] called W[illegible] W[illegible] [illegible] as a [illegible] W[illegible] W[illegible]

MR. J. A. CORNWALL.—We have received a communication of some length from this gentleman, relating to his suspension from the Ministry by the Cumberland Presbytery of Oregon. We briefly stated the circumstances under which this was done, in our paper some weeks since. We made that statement on what we understood to be an official report of the case given in the Pacific Christian Advocate. We have no reason to doubt its correctness. Mr. Cornwall, then an authorized minister, presented charges against two of his brother ministers. The charges were submitted to examination and the charges tried. No proof was presented to substantiate them; and the presbytery, considering the false nature of the charges, felt it their duty to suspend Mr. Cornwall from the ministry. They did this. Mr. Cornwall now desires to appeal from the judgment of the church, to which he submitted his case, to the public,—to politicians—to his brethren of the secession faith; and asks to do this through the medium of the Oregonian. This cannot be. And, in a note to us accompanying his communication, he seems to be conscious that his requirements will not be complied with on our part, and desires us to send his paper to the Advertiser. We shall take that trouble. That is the proper place for all secession articles. The wriggling, and twisting and squirming of this Mr. J. A. Cornwall—first in the false charges he made against his brethren in the ministry—second, in the proof of their falsity—third, in condemnation of their author and his expulsion from the ministry—and fourth, in this last effort to break the force of his punishment by an appeal to the public,—remind us of that oft quoted distich:

> "No man e'er felt the halter draw
> With good opinion of the law."

THE SECRET NAVAL EXPEDITION.—The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the New York Tribune, says, under date of September 26th: "It is understood that Flag-officer Goldsborough expects to have not less than forty ships of the Atlantic blockading fleet collected in the Roads within the next two weeks. Of course, the largest number of the expected fleet will be gunboats, lately purchased and now fitting out in New York and Philadelphia. The destination of this unexampled squadron is, of course, one of the secrets almost past finding out. That formidable operations are to be undertaken on the Southern coast, there can be no doubt.

There are certain cities and ports the moral effect of capturing which would be so great that it is fair to be presumed that it will be undertaken. If there is one place which above any or all others the loyal sense of the land demands should be humbled and made to feel the hand of the Federal Government, it is Charleston. Its fall would be the chief pillar of the rebellion. The results would be commensurate with the cost, great as it might possibly be, though it need be by no means so great as the rebels think or the Government has been in the habit of conceding.—These indications to the eye of the careful observer, establish more than a probability, if they are not ever proof positive of undertakings at an early day worthy of our Government.

REBEL ARMY ON THE POTOMAC.—The Charleston Mercury publishes this statement: "The terrible sanitary condition of our army on the Potomac is a matter of painful interest to the whole people of the Confederate States. There are few in the Confederate States who have not near relatives at Manassas or on the Mississippi. And those who have not should be there themselves. The frightful condition of the camp is a subject of universal interest and alarm. In the spirit of Spartan fortitude, we are willing that our troops should be sacrificed, if need be, in the cause of the country; but that they should fall victims to the mismanagement of an inefficient department is utterly unendurable. It is not our business to depose and reform, but it is our duty to expose that inefficiency which is disastrous to the public welfare. Ten thousand lives are now in jeopardy through this folly. The fruits of the great battle at Manassas have been sacrificed to the almost criminal fatuity. It is time to be done with it. The country must be served and personal predilections on the part of our authorities must no longer control our destinies and mar our proceedings. The States not to be sacrificed to fancies. How much longer is favoritism and folly to sacrifice lives and obstruct our arms? Mothers, fathers, widows, all cry aloud and plead for those they love.

A FOSSIL PLANT.—A correspondent of the Cambrian states that an impression of a gigantic fossil plant may be seen, exposed by the blasting of the sandstone, in a quarry between [illegible] Villas and [illegible], in the [illegible] of Swansea. The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The first Dispatches to the East by the Overland Telegraph.

FIRST DISPATCH FROM GOVERNOR NYE.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Carson City, N. T., Oct. 25.

To His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States: Mountain-bound, Nevada avails herself of the earliest opportunity to send upon the wings of the lightning to her maternal home assurances of her filial attachment to the Union, as framed by our fathers, and her warmest sympathy with those who are striving to maintain it.

J. W. NYE.

SECOND DISPATCH.

OVERLAND, CARSON CITY,
October 25, 1861.

Nevada Territory, through her first Legislative Assembly, to the President and people of the United States, greeting: Nevada for the Union, ever true and loyal! The last born of the Nation will be the last to desert the flag. Our soil to the extent of [illegible] can be relied upon to crush rebellion.

(Signed) J. L. VAN BOKKELEN,
Pres't of Council.
M. N. MITCHELL,
Speaker House of Representatives.

THIRD DISPATCH.

SACRAMENTO, Cal.,
October 25, 1861.

To His Excellency Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States. To-day, California is but a second's distance from the National Capital. Her patriotism with electric currents throbs responsive to that of her sister States, and holds civil liberty and the Union above all price.

LELAND STANFORD.

While we are rejoicing at the completion of this great work—the Overland Telegraph—it will be remembered that the first dispatch to this coast announced the fall, in the holy cause of human liberty, of the eloquent and chivalrous Senator of Oregon.

ITEM FROM CHARLESTON.—Among the soldiers now at Fort Sumter is James Cahel, an Irishman, who a few weeks ago had the bravery to say that when the Union fleet hove in sight he intended to spike the guns of the fort. For this expression Capt. Rhett (son of the editor of the Mercury) ordered him to be tied across a gun and whipped to receive one hundred and twenty-five lashes, well laid on. The soldiers in the fort rebelled against the infliction of this punishment, and so alarming was the mutiny that Rhett sent to Fort Moultrie for soldiers to quell it. They came, and the man was whipped. This incident, which occurred but two or three weeks ago, shows the state of feeling among the soldiers at Fort Sumter. They are mostly foreigners and Northern men, who, having no work, were obliged to go into the army to live.

A letter from Col. Dryer states that himself and family are in good health.

NS CHITTENDEN & CO

[illegible] left there last Tuesday, coming by a flag of truce to Fortress Monroe. One of them has a husband in the Federal service. Having an amount of money in the Portsmouth Savings Bank, she was desirous of obtaining it previous to leaving for the North, but the officers of the institution, learning the fact of her husband's position, made that a pretext for refusing to pay it over to her. Upon her requesting George M. Bain, the Cashier, to let her have at least a small amount for current expenses, he denied her in the most insulting terms. To make a bad matter worse, in a few days after this she was notified that her furniture would be sold for the benefit of the Southern Confederacy. Leaving as soon afterwards as she could possibly do so, she does not know what has since transpired concerning it, having left her household goods at their mercy."

[illegible] Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.
